

GUIDELINES & SPECIFICATIONS

Posters for this division must be submitted on 11 x 17 or 8.5 x 11 paper (3200 pixels wide X 2400 pixels high), communicate an awareness and need for creative ways to reduce your environmental impact in Grand County, using the slogan “Red Rocks. Green Actions.”

- Relevance and appropriateness of the message
- Overall visual design
- Overall completeness of submission and student applicability

CANYONLANDS
SOLID WASTE AUTHORITY

Artwork Specifications

Artwork in a more horizontal rectangular shape (the general shape of a billboard) is recommended. Vertical artwork will not be accepted.

Recommended file type:

- Save as JPG, PNG, or BMP at maximum quality in RGB mode.

Note: Make sure to leave space in the submission to include the “Red Rocks. Green Actions.” tagline on the final billboard if it is not incorporated into your artwork.

RULES

1. Artwork should focus on actions that people can take to reduce their environmental impact in Grand County and must be an original work of art. Copied artwork will not be accepted. Business, organization, and agency logos may not be used.
2. Acceptable art mediums include paint, crayon, collage, ink, computer-generated, charcoal, etc. No audio or video will be accepted.
3. Please make artwork family-friendly, non-partisan, and non-copyrighted.
4. Only one entry per student is allowed and all submissions must be made via the submission form or by emailing LJ Blackburn at lblackburn@swssd1.org
5. Teachers may submit artwork on behalf of students through email or the submission form; all artwork submitted must return a Legal Agreement with each submission.
6. Artists who are over the age of 18 or parents/legal guardians submitting on behalf of their children can submit artwork in one of two ways:
 - a. You may email artwork directly to LJ Blackburn at lblackburn@swssd1.org, please include a Legal Agreement with your submission.
 - b. You may submit artwork via the submission form. By submitting this work, you will be agreeing to the legal terms listed below.